Lai-Tat Szeto, solo clarinet

Born and raised in Hong Kong, Lai-Tat (Linda) Szeto started playing clarinet at the age of eight. Her formal training began at the age of fourteen with John Kolijonen, a professional clarinetist based in Hong Kong. She joined the Hong Kong Festival Youth Wind Orchestra in 2007 as a soloist and chamber musician and was appointed the principal clarinet position three years later. During her five years in the Orchestra, Linda travelled to Taiwan, Korea and France performing in a number of music festivals. She was also a member of the Hong Kong Wind Ensemble. In 2011, Linda moved to the U.S. and began her bachelor's degree in northern California. She is now an undergraduate at the University of California, San Diego studying clarinet performance with Robert Zelickman.
